

University of Montana

ScholarWorks at University of Montana

University of Montana News Releases, 1928,
1956-present

University Relations

2-6-1969

Senator Hatfield to discuss draft at U of Montana

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases>

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations, "Senator Hatfield to discuss draft at U of Montana" (1969). University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present. 4366.
<https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/4366>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.

Information Services • University of Montana • Missoula, Montana 59801 • (406) 243-2522

IMMEDIATELY

sale/js
2/6/69
state + cs

SEN. HATFIELD TO DISCUSS
DRAFT AT U OF MONTANA

MISSOULA---

The draft, a subject of long-standing debate on many college and university campuses throughout the nation, will be topic of an address by Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., Friday night at the University of Montana.

His remarks will launch the four-day grand opening ceremonies of the new $4.3-million University Center on the Missoula campus. The grand opening is in conjunction with the 76th anniversary of the founding of the University in 1893.

^{cq}
Hatfield, 46, a native of Dallas, Ore., speaks at 8 p.m. Friday (Feb. 7) in the Five Valleys Ballroom of the Center. The lecture is open to the public without charge.

Other well known personalities joining the weekend's activities at UM include Gov. Forrest Anderson, UM President Robert T. Pantzer and Edward J. Leary of Butte, president of the Associated Students at UM (ASUM). The three speak during an invitational luncheon at noon Saturday (Feb. 8) in the Five Valleys Ballroom. Hatfield's visit to UM is sponsored by the ASUM Program Council.

A buffet dinner at 5:30 p.m. Saturday in the ballroom is open to the public. Dinner music will be provided by the Student String Quartet. Several public tours are scheduled between 1:30-4:30 p.m. Saturday by members of Bear Paws and Spurs, sophomore service honoraries at UM.

Hatfield served as secretary of state in Oregon from 1957-59 and he was governor of that state from 1959-67. He became U.S. senator from Oregon in 1967.

more

Hatfield has been recipient of numerous awards, including the Distinguished Service Award from the National Republican Club of New York, 1959; The Eleanor Roosevelt Humanitarian Award and Man of the Year, 1965, and the Order of Lafayette's Freedom Award for Distinguished Leadership in Combatting Communism, 1967. Last year Hatfield received the Robert A. Taft Memorial Award from the American University Young Republicans. He is a member of the American Legion and Masons.

Hatfield's wife is the former Antoinette Juzmanich, daughter of a Yugoslavian emigrant father. The Hatfields are parents of two boys and two girls.

University Center grand opening ends Monday night with the performance of jazz artist Ramsey Lewis in the Five Valleys Ballroom. Lewis performs in concert with the Ramsey Lewis Trio at 8:15 p.m. Tickets are on sale at the information desk at the Center for $2. Tickets at the door Monday night will cost $2.50.

The Lewis performance replaces one previously scheduled for singer Neil Diamond, who is ill in Canada.

###